Messiah would be a sacrifice for sin

The prophecy can be found in Isaiah 53:5-12, part of which reads: "But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities." Romans 5:6-8 confirms the fulfillment of this prophecy. "Christ died for the ungodly [...] God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

Fulfilled Old Testament prophecies about Jesus

The Messiah is mentioned in several books of the Old Testament, but these were not just mere descriptions of a potential savior that would be sent by God. The Old Testament includes numerous prophecies about the Messiah. The fascinating thing is that many of these prophecies were fulfilled, and we can find evidence of this in several books of the New Testament. According to these biblical accounts, it looks like Jesus Christ was indeed the Messiah.

Messiah would be born in Bethlehem

Bethlehem was the birthplace of Jesus, and this was prophesized in the Old Testament, more specifically in Micah 5:2, which reads: "But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans[a] of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from of old, from ancient times." The location of Jesus' birthplace is then confirmed in Matthew 2:1 and Luke 2:4-6.

Messiah would come from the line of Abraham

Both Genesis 12:3 and Genesis 22:18 mention this. The latter reads "and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed me." Matthew 1:1 then confirms this in the Genealogy of Jesus the Messiah. And so does Romans 9:5.

Messiah would spend a season in Egypt

"When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son," reads Hosea 11:1. Matthew 2:14-15 in the New Testament confirms it: "So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt, where he stayed until the death of Herod. And so was fulfilled what the Lord had said through the prophet: 'Out of Egypt I called my son.'"

Messiah would be seated at God's right hand.

Both Psalm 68:18 and Psalm 110:1 mention this prophecy. The latter reads: "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet." Then Mark 16:19 says: "After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into Heaven and he sat at the right hand of God." In addition, Matthew 22:44 also makes reference to this prophecy.
